

JESUS CHOSE A DONKEY

by Peter Rose & Anne Conlon

Donkeys are the servants of the poorest on the earth,
But Jesus chose a donkey for the journey to his birth.
Lilies have no value but the price that they can bring,
But Jesus said a lily is more glorious than a king.

*Who are we to judge the value of God's creatures?
Who are we to judge how much a life is worth?
We don't see the world as God, our Father, sees it.
We don't understand how God loves his earth.*

Donkeys are derided by the rich man and his slave,
But Jesus chose a donkey for the journey to his grave.
Beggars are rejected by the wealthy and the strong,
But Jesus said among them is where his friends belong.

*Who are we to judge the value of God's creatures?
Who are we to judge how much a life is worth?
We don't see the world as God, our Father, sees it.
We don't understand how God loves his earth.*
