

NEWS IS WHISPERED IN CORNERS

by Peter Rose & Anne Conlon

News is whispered in corners; word is getting around,
Spreading out on the grapevine, just the hint of a sound.
'Christ will carry a burden, calm the raging sea.'
Take a hand and spread the word; declare a jubilee!

*Praise the Lord with trumpets! Let the cello rejoice!
Flute, trombone and saxophone, give them all a voice!
Praise the Lord with dancing! Stand together and sing!
Praise the Lord with music! Make the rafters ring!*

News is spreading like wildfire; word is getting around.
Keep in touch with the grapevine; keep in tune with the sound.
'God delivers his people, sets the captive free.'
Take a hand and spread the word; declare a jubilee!

*Praise the Lord with trumpets! Let the cello rejoice!
Flute, trombone and saxophone, give them all a voice!
Praise the Lord with dancing! Stand together and sing!
Praise the Lord with music! Make the rafters ring!*

Shout the news from the rooftops! Spread the message around!
Be a part of the grapevine! Be a part of the sound!
'Christ has risen in triumph! There's the guarantee!
Take a hand and spread the word; declare a jubilee!

*Praise the Lord with trumpets! Let the cello rejoice!
Flute, trombone and saxophone, give them all a voice!
Praise the Lord with dancing! Stand together and sing!
Praise the Lord with music! Make the rafters ring!*
