 Written in honour of Australia's first saint, it is designed for congregational use with the addition of optional harmony parts for choir. Accompaniments are for piano/organ. 'Lord I Give My Life to You' was sung during the Communion of the Papal Mass in Bellahouston Park, Glasgow. The MacKillop Mass, set to the new translation, was first sung in the presence of Cardinal O'Brien at St Margaret's, Roy Bridge for the parish's celebration of Mary MacKillop's canonisation. Mary MacKillop's family originated in and around Roy Bridge in Lochaber..
