

TEACH ME TO TRUST

Teach me to trust the promise of your word;
Open my heart that I may understand.
Teach me to know the comfort of your love.
Help me to place my life within your hand.

Teach me to share the darkness of your pain;
Open my heart that I may understand.
Teach me to know the comfort of your love.
Help me to place my life within your hand.

Teach me to feel your healing in my life;
Open my heart that I may understand.
Teach me to know the comfort of your love.
Help me to place my life within your hand.

Teach me to find the treasure of your peace;
Open my heart that I may understand.
Teach me to know the comfort of your love.
Help me to place my life within your hand.

Teach me to trust the promise of your word;
Open my heart that I may understand.
Teach me to know the comfort of your love.
Help me to place my life within your hand.
